Message From the Manager

I would like to extend a warm welcome to our new residents and staff. Additionally, I want to express my gratitude to Jananne for stepping up and filling the Recreation role while we searched for a suitable candidate. Thank you, Jananne!

I also want to bid a fond farewell to our Maintenance worker, Ben.

Please remember to give 24 hours notice if you would like guests to stay for a meal. If you have any issues you'd like to discuss, feel free to come talk to me. My door is always open

Kelli.

Message From the Manager

Summer has arrived! Please enjoy every moment of what summer has to offer. Take some extra time to enjoy the beautiful views & all the hard work our Residents have put into beautifying our yard.

I would like to Thank each one of you for your continued support in abiding to our no Smoking out front. Its smells & looks inviting Coming into our facility.

Melissa Henitiuk

New & Noteworthy

Our Resident Association is quite active. They have defied the deer & had a “deer fence” put up around their garden spot!

Huge Thanks to Tom Shannon for heading up the fence project, as well as putting together raised planters & Lawn chair cushion storage boxes. Also, re-strapping lawn chair seats. Thank you to the residents that helped him 😊

Message From the Manager

Welcome Summer!! Time to get out in the fresh air and sunshine!

This month Martha Furstenwerth is celebrating a monumental milestone 100 years old..... Happy Birthday Martha.

We would like to extend a welcome to our new residents and staff here at Homesteader.

The residents are enjoying the new furniture throughout the building, such a nice lift for our facility.

Our weather can be unpredictable, so remember to pack with you your hat, jacket, and water.

Homesteader Lodge is always looking for Volunteers, no matter what your age or your talent. If you have some free time and enjoy spending time with our seniors, free to contact Dakota or Tara if you have any questions.

HAPPY CANADA DAY EVERYONE!!!

Tara Schlichter
